

Henry VIII (8th)

Keywords

Catholic

Defender of the Faith

Catherine of Aragon

Divorce

Anne Boleyn

Thomas Cromwell

Protestant

Act of Supremacy

Monasteries and Convents

English Bible

What was Henry famous for

- Having

Becoming

England

Henry was originally loyal to the Pope in Rome

- He was against Luther and wrote a book defending the Catholic Religion

The pope gave him the title

'Defender of the Faith'

His trouble with wives!!

- Catherine of Aragon was his first wife.
- She was married to his brother first.
- They were married for 20 years and had many babies
- They all died except one Mary

- Henry was concerned that he had no son to rule England when he died
- The Pope had given him permission to marry his brother's widow.
- Henry felt he was being punished by God for doing this as Catherine did not produce a boy child.

He had also fallen in love with a younger woman Anne Boleyn

He wanted to divorce Catherine

But the pope wouldn't allow it.

Catherine's nephew was Charles V

- Henry sacked Wolsey and appointed Thomas Cromwell as his new minister
- Cromwell was secretly a Protestant
- He told Henry to cut all links with Rome
- He now could divorce Catherine.

- <http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningzone/clips/catherine-of-aragon-and-henry-viii-pt-2-2/8962.html>

- Henry had the English parliament declare him Head of the Church.
- This was called
The Act of Supremacy

- He married Anne and they had a Girl called Elizabeth.
- He grew tired of her and said she had an affair and had her beheaded!!!!

He married Jane
Seymour

She had a son called
Edward

But she died soon after!!!

- He married 3 more times but had no more children

Catherine of Aragon (Horenbout)

Ann Boleyn (Hoskins)

Jane Seymour (Horenbout)

Anne of Cleves (Holbein)

Katherine Howard (Holbein)

Katherine Parr (Horenbout)

- <http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningzone/clips/brainsmart-mini-memory-animation-henry-the-8ths-wives/10047.html>

Henry Becomes Protestant

- He closed all the monasteries and convents and took their lands
- He had the bible and all prayers translated into English

- <http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningzone/clips/why-did-henry-viii-dissolve-the-monasteries/165.html>