

The Almoner

It is your job to make sure the poor in your area are well cared for. You give gifts of charity e.g.: money, food or clothes – to beggars outside the gates.

The Abbess

You are the head of the Nunnery. It is your job to make sure the Nuns are doing their jobs properly. You are their protector, teacher and disciplinarian for the nuns in your care.

The Preceptor

You are responsible for the music making in the monastery. It is your job to train the monks in plain chant for the daily services and prayers.

The illuminator

It is your job to copy down the books in the Monastery library. All of this needs to be done by hand. The first letter on each page is often very decorated and contains many pictures.

The Infirmarian

It is your job to care for the Nuns who become ill. You also have to care for any old and sick people living at the nunnery.

The Hospitaller

It is your job to make sure all pilgrims to the monastery and other guests are well cared for. You need to provide food and lodgings. You also find medical care for those that need it.

Craftsman.

It is your job to make and repair all the furniture used in the Monastery.

Farmer

You are a monk who works the land given to the Monastery by the rich. You are part of the workforce that provides food for the monastery.

Novice Master

It is your job to teach the novices what they need to know to become monks. You will teach the boys Latin (so they can read and write) and all about the Christian faith and how to take part in the monastery services.

The Abbot

You are the leader of the Monastery. It is your job to look after the monks and make sure they obey the rules of the Monastery. You will also receive important guests who come to the monastery.

The Cellarer

It is your job to make sure there is enough food for the monks. You have to look after the stores and make sure they last all year round.

Nurse

You are a nun that works in a medieval hospital. It is your job to wash and feed patients. You also make and give medicines to the sick. You often have to help with the burial of dead patients,

A Friar

You come from an order of monks who travelled around rather than setting up monasteries. It is your job to teach and preach to all the people you meet on your journeys.

Knight Templar

You belong to a special order of monks. It is your job to fight in the Crusades in the Holy land. You are expected to take care of the holy shrines in Jerusalem.

What impact did monks and Nuns have on people's everyday lives.

Name of Job done	A description of the job	Explain how this job did/ did not affect ordinary people