

Towns in Ulster

Towns were important to the planters.

People came from the countryside to buy and sell their goods.

Walls were built around the town to keep it safe. Walls had a bulwark with a cannon.

The diamond or square was in the middle which was an important meeting point.

Important buildings were	The Town Hall
	The Jail
	The Courthouse
	The Church
	School